Healing Intention Circle

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 1 12:00 pm - 12:30 pm

Address: <https://be8nfinite.com/healing-intention-circle/>

Objective:

Max Planck, as a man who has devoted his whole life to the clearest-headed science for the study of matter, stated:

“I can tell you as a result of my research about atoms this much: There is no matter as such. All matter originates and exists only by virtue of a force, which brings the particle of an atom to vibration and holds this most minute solar system of the atom together. We must assume behind this force the existence of a conscious and intelligent mind. This mind is the matrix of all matter.”

Einstein defined this field as the sole governing agency of the particle. This field is made of electrical and magnetic energies. Infinite possibilities exist in this field. With our minds we reach into those possibilities. We imagine our healing, abundance and transformation and that is how we lock that possibility in place. Through the feelings of our hearts we breathe life into the image of our mind. Belief is the union of thought and emotion. It is the code that translates possibilities into reality.

In Healing Intention Circle, a group of people comes together with connected hearts to focus on one positive intention coupled with coherent emotion (energy in motion). They hold an energetic space to bring about the desired healing and transformation. This participation in unfolding the reality that new science recognizes, has been used in many ancient traditions.

Submit any area of your life that needs support to be improved and bask in the love and oneness in this circle.

Who is this program for?

Anyone who feels Stuck, Sick or is seeking healing and transformation in one or more areas in life to live life to the fullest in peace, in power and in joy.

The Witness Blanket

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 1 5:00 pm

Address: 50 Laidlaw St. N., Cannington, ON, Canada, Ontario - Trinity-St. Andrew's United Church

The Witness Blanket is a powerful art installation created by master carver Carey Newman to recognize the atrocities of the residential school era, honour the children and symbolize ongoing reconciliation. Inspired by a woven blanket, this cedar-framed artwork is made of hundreds of items from Indian residential schools, Survivors, churches, governments and other cultural sites across Canada. Each item tells a story of loss, strength, resilience.

A reproduction of the original work, printed on wooden panels, was created so that the sharing of its stories and message could continue. The original work resides in the Canadian Museum for Human Rights, Manitoba.

Group visits welcome, please email witnessblanket2025@gmail.com to book a tour.

Max Planck, as a man who has devoted his whole life to the clearest-headed science for the study of matter, stated:

“I can tell you as a result of my research about atoms this much: There is no matter as such. All matter originates and exists only by virtue of a force, which brings the particle of an atom to vibration and holds this most minute solar system of the atom together. We must assume behind this force the existence of a conscious and intelligent mind. This mind is the matrix of all matter.”

Einstein defined this field as the sole governing agency of the particle. This field is made of electrical and magnetic energies. Infinite possibilities exist in this field. With our minds we reach into those possibilities. We imagine our healing, abundance and transformation and that is how we lock that possibility in place. Through the feelings of our hearts we breathe life into the image of our mind. Belief is the union of thought and emotion. It is the code that translates possibilities into reality.

In Healing Intention Circle, a group of people comes together with connected hearts to focus on one positive intention coupled with coherent emotion (energy in motion). They hold an energetic space to bring about the desired healing and transformation. This participation in unfolding the reality that new science recognizes, has been used in many ancient traditions.

Submit any area of your life that needs support to be improved and bask in the love and oneness in this circle.

Who is this program for?

Anyone who feels Stuck, Sick or is seeking healing and transformation in one or more areas in life to live life to the fullest in peace, in power and in joy.

A Cup of Heartfulness

Date and Time: Monday, October 27 8:00 pm - 9:15 pm

Address: <https://be8nfinite.com/meditation/>

Objective:

The purpose of these bi-weekly gatherings, is to come together to meditate the Heartfulness Way and to share conversations on a diversity of spiritual and meditation topics. Throughout each session, we may share together, from the heart, in a meaningful way. Discussing our hopes, aspirations, and longings, as well as what may be challenging for us as we go through our spiritual journey.

We also share from Heartfulness literature as well as our personal practical experiences. The conversation is followed by a 30-minute guided meditation and we conclude the sessions with a group intention for universal peace. In essence, A Cup of Heartfulness allows us to come together and support each other in the journey of spiritual life.

Who is this program for?

If you are looking for a simple, practical way to learn to relax, meditate and discover the unlimited resources of the heart, and if you are looking for a community to support you in your spiritual journey, this program is for you.

An Introduction to Queer Ecology

Date and Time: Tuesday, October 28 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 75 Marietta Street, Uxbridge, ON

October 28, 2025 – An Introduction to Queer Ecology, with guest speaker May Matchim @ 7:00 PM Uxbridge Senior's Centre, 75 Marietta Street, Uxbridge, ON Discover the fascinating world of queer ecology with naturalist May Matchim.

Prepare to challenge your assumptions about the natural world as we explore species that defy heteronormativity and the sex binary.

Topics include:

- Sex change in amphibians and plants
- The sexual diversity and reproduction of plants
- Same-sex sexual behaviour in wildlife, including nesting and parenting
- Other species that challenge the sex binary and heteronormativity;
- The history of Queer ecology as a field
- Barriers and biases that have prevented scientists from carrying out certain research

May Matchim (she/her) is an artist and naturalist based in Toronto. She's done work with a number of environmental organizations including the Bamfield Marine Sciences Centre and Royal Ontario Museum. She's currently directing a feature length Queer ecology documentary entitled Understanding Myself as an Amphibian.

All are welcome to this presentation. Visit www.northdurhamnature.com for information about our outings and other talks.
